Dear Parents,

Reading Evening – 14th November

Don't forget the reading evening tomorrow night from 5.30pm to 7pm. As explained in the letter last week we will read and enjoy stories, poems and rhymes. Refreshments will be served in the school hall by our PTFA. We also have the Scholastic book fair so, if you would like them to, your child can choose and purchase a book. The books trolleys will be open in the school hall after 3.30pm tonight and in the morning before the bell rings if you would like to browse. Sale of books helps to contribute towards buying books for school so it is a win, win! Hope you can come along and enjoy this fun event.

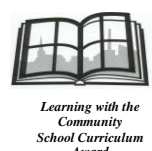

Its going to be a busy day!!!

Christmas Carol Concert at St Andrew's Church, Penrith

Once again we will be singing at the annual schools Carol Concert at St Andrew's Church, Penrith. This is organised by the Penrith Schools Music Association of which we are a member. This year the concert is on Tuesday, December 11th at 7pm. A number of schools will be participating. This is a wonderful opportunity to come together and sing and will really get you into the festive spirit. We will organise transport before the concert and ask that parents collect their children at the end of the concert (or arrange a lift home).

Children in the choir will travel to Penrith by bus on Tuesday morning to rehearse. Tickets are available for parents/grandparents and anyone else interested in attending at a cost of £5 for adults and £3 concessionary price.

Please sign and return the slip below if you would like your child to take part.

Community Carols in the Old School Hall

On Wednesday December 12th at 7pm we will join members of our community in the Old School Hall to sing and do a reading. This is a wonderful way for our community to join together. Children sit with Mrs A and me and sing a song from our Christmas play. They love wearing their costumes to this event! Mince pies and refreshments are served afterwards. You are most welcome to stay or can drop your child off, collecting them afterwards from Mrs A and me.

Christmas Shopping Event

This Friday evening, 16th November, there is a PTFA organised Christmas shopping event in the Old School Hall in Armathwaite village (by the church). The event runs between 6pm and 9pm. Funds raised will support school and we are grateful to our PTFA committee for organising this evening. It is a great fundraiser and also a lovely community event. There will be a range of stalls, activities for children and refreshments being served. Please come along!

Yours sincerely,
